Rookie Series 2013 – $5,000 Prize Money Plus Trophies

The Rookie Campdraft Series, proudly sponsored by NAB Agribusiness, has made its name in drafting circles, with the trophy saddle pads and jacket being a sought after prize for up and coming drafters. With the 10th season upon us, we can look forward to the tremendous competition shown in previous years. The Rookie Series has seen many finalists go on to win major drafts around the country and that tradition is sure to continue.

The 2012 Series final held in Richmond saw 16 horse and competitor combinations battle their way around the course and through the gate to compete for the blue ribbon. In fierce competition, the winning team with a huge following was local rider and Richmond Committee member Willie Bradshaw riding "Stoneage Venus". Congratulations to Willie and all place getters for once again making a fantastic Rookie Series final.

So that it is clear to everyone, take a look at the terms and conditions at the bottom of this page. Remember, once a maiden rider & maiden horse have qualified for the rounds, this combination stands throughout the entire series.

Eligible riders can nominate more than one combination for the series. A nomination for the series must be submitted before the start of the maiden campdraft. Nominations per round are to be completed on the nomination form for the relevant drafts.

NAB Agribusiness is proud to be associated with the Top End Campdrafting events for 2013, and is especially proud to be once again sponsoring the Rookie Series which showcases the future of our great sport of campdrafting.

The NAB Agribusiness division in North Queensland and Northern Territory has a staff of 32 dedicated Agribusiness Specialists who provide first class service to their clients throughout this region.
